

Triathlon Ontario Anti-doping Policy

Policy on Anti-Doping

1. Triathlon Canada has adopted the 2015 Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP) as its primary domestic anti-doping policy. As a member of Triathlon Canada, the CADP also applies to Triathlon Ontario.

Administered on behalf of Triathlon Canada by the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES), the 2015 CADP is fully compliant with the 2015 World Anti-Doping Code, International Standards and Guidelines as they may exist from time to time. To view or download the 2015 CADP, please visit <http://cces.ca/canadian-anti-doping-program>

2. In addition, Triathlon Canada, as a member federation of International Triathlon Union, must also be fully compliant with the International Triathlon Union anti-doping rules. The International Triathlon Union anti-doping rules are fully compliant with the 2015 World Anti-Doping Code, International Standards and Guidelines.

3. Triathlon Ontario entered into a partnership agreement in 2018 with the CCES to provide Triathlon Ontario athlete and coaches educational resources to promote and maintain the integrity of the sport through education.
